

Coming this November A New Monthly Free Course Series! At the Audubon House

195 9th St. SE (Oslo Road), Vero Beach, FL 32962

Friday Mornings 9 am -12:00 pm

Attend classes & field walks to enhance your Environmental Understanding and Skills to lead communities:

- Plant native gardens
- Attract wildlife
- Decrease fertilizer & toxins
- Conserve water
- Remove CO₂

Learn about

Florida's Unique Environments in all splendor!

How to be an Audubon Activist:

Nature Education, Advocacy, & Volunteer Opportunity Classes

Nov 17, 2017	History of ORCA and Pelican Island Audubon - Dr. Richard Baker Indian River Lagoon - Bob Montanaro Our Natural Habitats followed by an ORCA Hammock Walk - Ken Gonyo
Dec 15, 2017	Scrub-Jays & their Habitats - followed by an ORCA Scrub Walk - Bob Montanaro, Ellie Van Os, Ken Gonyo
Jan 19-20, 2018	Conference: Transforming Landscapes for a Sustainable Future - Emerson Center $25/Fri. Evening Reception & Sat. Lunch - Info/Register: www.PelicanIslandAudubon.org
Feb 16, 2018	Butterfly/Pollinator Native Gardens - Ken Gonyo Invasive Plants & their Control - Beth Powell & Wendy Swindell
March 16, 2018	Being an Audubon Activist followed by a walk to the ORCA Tower - Dr. Richard Baker & Ken Gonyo
Apr 20, 2018	Flora & Fauna of the Indian River Lagoon followed by seining for fish in the IRL - Dr. Grant Gilmore
May 18, 2018	Blood Suckers followed by finding them at ORCA - Dr. Nathan Burkett-Cadena
Feb Sunday Morning TBD	Canoe & kayak to a nearby ORCA bird rookery
Mar Sunday Morning TBD	Birding to a Wetland Habitat

All classes held at the Pelican Island Audubon House are taught by dynamic guest speakers on topics related to our local natural habitats and associated flora and fauna. Each class will have a classroom segment of interactive lectures followed by outside field excursions relating to the classroom topics. The class will give you opportunities for hands-on learning of various habitats. Class schedule subject to change.

Pre-register at www.PelicanIslandAudubon.org | Phone: 772-567-3520 | Email: piaudubon@yahoo.com